

The Butler's Retreat

Once upon a time this large room was intended to be the butler's room in the mansion. It is now a grand hideaway retreat for special guests at The Willows. The room offers higher views of the front pasture, the entire Rogue Valley and the Table Rocks, from both the West and the North. The room features a beautiful queen sleigh bed, a large private bath, a cozy window seat, and a spacious seating area with a full sofa bed (for a third party). This is a special place for older kids and adults alike to escape. The theme in this room is the great outdoors.
