

Maggie's Attic

Formerly two rooms. Maggie's Attic was named for one of the house maids who lived on the third floor in the early 1900's. This lovely room has a private bath with European faucets and a beautiful Queen four-poster bed. The views to the East are of the valley from a cozy window seat, and the Table Rocks to the North.

Double/Single Occupancy $150 night